

Danby Products Acquires MicroFridge

Leading North American Household Appliance Marketer Expands Product Line-up with Addition of Microwave/Refrigerator Manufacturer

GUELPH, Ontario, February 8, 2010 – Danby Products, one of the largest appliance marketing companies in North America, today announced that it has acquired MicroFridge® (Intirion Corporation) from Mac-Gray Corporation (NYSE: TUC).

MicroFridge sells a proprietary line of appliances for small space living environments, primarily combination refrigerators/freezers/microwave ovens utilizing its Safe Plug® circuitry. The products are marketed throughout the United States to colleges, hotels and motels, and assisted living facilities, as well as to the federal government for military housing.

“MicroFridge represents a natural complement to our extensive line-up of compact, specialty and home comfort appliances,” said James E. Lightfoot, President of Danby Products.

“Traditionally, our strength lies in offering innovative products that match consumers’ lifestyles and are sold in retail markets in the United States and Canada. This acquisition enables us to increase our penetration of U.S. wholesale markets where MicroFridge is an established brand and recognized leader, including the academic, government, hospitality and office sectors.”

“Danby and MicroFridge are a great fit, because Danby is a well-respected company and one of the leading appliance suppliers in North America,” said Stewart G. MacDonald, Chief Executive Officer of Mac-Gray. “We are confident that MicroFridge employees and customers will be well-served in their relationship with Danby going forward.”

“In joining the Danby family, MicroFridge employees will be joining a peer company with more than 60 years of experience in the household appliance market,” said Lightfoot. “MicroFridge customers can rest assured that the integration with Danby will be seamless, with no disruptions in service. Customers will continue to work with the same MicroFridge sales representatives they have come to know and trust.”

Danby intends to maintain the MicroFridge brand, retain all current MicroFridge employees and maintain the corporate office at the MicroFridge facility in Walpole, Mass.
